

- research those issues
- write and file the brief
- prepare and file an appendix

The undersigned estimates that, with all the other work on other cases that he has to perform, it will take him about two months to prepare a thoroughly researched, carefully argued brief.

The undersigned has discussed this matter with the Chief State's Attorney Appellate Section and the State does not oppose the granting of this motion.

Legal grounds upon which the moving party relies: Motions for an extension of time within which to file a brief are authorized by Practice Book § 66-1(b).

Conclusion: For the above-stated reasons, the defendant-appellant Tywan Edwards respectfully requests that the Court extend the time within which his brief and appendix must be filed until Monday, August 19, 2019.

Respectfully submitted,
